Pursuant to the Employment Pension Plans Act (Alberta)

BMO InvestorLine Inc. Retirement Income Fund

Plan Carrier — BMO Trust Company

100 King St. W., 41st Floor, Toronto, Ontario M5X 1H3

Acting through its Agent, BMO InvestorLine Inc.

Client name	Branch code	Account number

Upon receipt of locked-in pension assets pursuant to the Employment Pension Plans Act (Alberta) (the “Act”), the Employment Pension Plans Regulation (Alberta) (the “Regulation”) and in accordance with the instructions of the Planholder to transfer the assets to an Alberta life income fund, the Plan Carrier and Planholder agree that these Supplementary Terms and are appended to and form additional terms of the declaration of trust for the above-named retirement income fund.

1. Definitions

In these Supplementary Terms, “Plan” means the above-named retirement income fund, governed by the declaration of trust, the prescribed Life Income Fund Addendum under the Regulation (the “Alberta Addendum”) and these Supplementary Terms. “Planholder” means the planholder, accountholder or annuitant under the declaration of trust and application form for the Plan and includes the “owner” of the Plan as that term is used in the Regulation.

In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between these Supplementary Terms and those of the Alberta Addendum, the Alberta Addendum prevails. These Supplementary Terms apply to the extent permitted by the Act and the Regulation.

For the purposes of any provision of the Income Tax Act (Canada) respecting registered income funds, “pension partner” does not include any person who is not recognized as a spouse or common-law partner under the Income Tax Act (Canada).

2. Transfers out of the Plan

Any transfer out of the Plan must be made on a tax deferred basis under the Income Tax Act (Canada). In accordance with paragraphs 146.(3)(2)(e) and (e)(2) of the Income Tax Act (Canada), the Plan Carrier will retain sufficient assets to satisfy the requirement to pay the minimum amount to the Planholder for the year.

3. Amount and Frequency of Payments

The Planholder must notify the Plan Carrier by instructions of the amount and frequency of the payments for each calendar year. If the Planholder does not give instructions as to the amount of the payments or instructs an amount less than the minimum amount for the calendar year, the minimum amount prescribed for a registered retirement income fund under the Income Tax Act (Canada) will be paid. If the Planholder does not give instructions as to the frequency of the payments, the amount will be paid in one payment at the end of the calendar year.

If the Planholder provided instructions regarding the amount and frequency of payments in a prior calendar year, the Plan Carrier or the Agent may continue to apply these instructions to the payment of future amounts (assuming that these instructions remain acceptable under the applicable legislation and that the Planholder does not provide any new instructions).

The instructions must be given at the beginning of the calendar year. The Planholder may change the amount and frequency of the payments or request additional payments by giving instructions to the Plan Carrier.

The Planholder must give the Plan Carrier instructions as to which of the assets to sell where required in order to ensure there is sufficient cash in the Plan to make the payments. If the Plan Carrier does not receive the instructions within a reasonable time before a payment is required, the Plan Carrier may sell any of the assets that the Plan Carrier, in its discretion, considers appropriate to provide the required cash; and the Plan Carrier will not be liable for any loss that may result from this action, including but not limited to investment losses or diminution of the assets, or for any related investment or administration expenses.

4. Withdrawal in Case of Financial Hardship

The Plan Carrier will, on application of the Planholder, provide to the Planholder a lump sum amount in the manner provided in the Regulation if the Planholder meets the requirements of the financial hardship exception under the Regulation. The Plan Carrier and the Agent are entitled to rely upon the information provided by the Planholder in the financial hardship unlocking application. An application that meets the requirements of the Act and Regulation constitutes authorization to the Plan Carrier to make the payment from the Plan.

5. Amendment

No amendment shall be made to the Plan unless the Plan as amended remains in conformity with the Act and the Regulation and with section 146.3 of the Income Tax Act (Canada).

The following must be completed

However, the total of such payments shall not be less than the Minimum Amount required to be paid out of the Plan and shall not exceed the Maximum Amount permitted to be paid out of the Plan in accordance with this Addendum. General liability on improper payments or transfers

5 If the life income fund issuer pays or transfers money from this life income fund contrary to the Act or the Regulation,

(a) subject to clause (b), the life income fund issuer must,

(i) if less than all of the money in this life income fund is improperly paid or transferred, deposit into this life income fund an amount of money equal to the money that had been improperly paid or transferred, or

Remittance of securities

6(1) If this life income fund holds identifiable and transferable securities, the transfers referred to in this Part may, unless otherwise stipulated in the contract to which this is an addendum, be effected, at the option of the life income fund issuer and with the consent of the owner, by the transfer of any such securities.

(2) Subject to section 2, there may be transferred to this life income fund identifiable and transferable securities, unless otherwise stipulated in the contract to which this is an addendum, if that transfer is approved by the life income fund issuer and consented to by the owner.

(i) the life annuity is in the form of a joint and survivor pension as described in section 90(2) of the Act, or

(2) A payment under subsection (1) must be made within 60 days after the delivery to the issuer of the documents required to effect the payment.

Part 4

10 The life income fund issuer will, on application, provide to the owner of the life income fund the lump sum amount referred to in section 71(2) of the Act if, at the time of the application,

(a) the balance of the life income fund does not exceed 20% of the Year's Maximum Pensionable Earnings (YMPE) under the Canada Pension Plan for the calendar year in which the application is made, or

(b) the owner is at least 65 years of age and the balance of the life income fund does not exceed 40% of the YMPE for the calendar year in which the application is made.

Splitting of contract

11 If this life income fund is not eligible for a lump sum payment option referred to in section 10, assets in the life income fund must not be divided and transferred to 2 or more, life income funds, pension plans or annuities or any combination of them if that transfer would make any one or more of those vehicles eligible for a lump sum payment under section 71(1) or (2) of the Act.

Shortened life payments

12 On application by the owner of this life income fund referred to in section 71(4)(a) of the Act, the life income fund issuer will pay, to the owner, a payment, or series of payments for a fixed term, of all or part of the assets held in the life income fund if

(a) a medical practitioner certifies that the owner has a disability or illness that is terminal or to likely shorten the owner's life considerably, and

(b) at the time of the application, if the owner is a member owner and has a pension partner, a waiver in Form 13 signed by the pension partner has been provided to the life income fund issuer.

Non residency for tax purposes

13 The life income fund issuer will, on application, provide to the owner of the life income fund the lump sum amount referred to in section 71(4)(b) of the Act if,

(a) the owner includes in the application written evidence that the Canada Revenue Agency has confirmed that the owner is a non-resident for the purposes of the Income Tax Act (Canada), or

(b) at the time of the application, if the owner is a member owner and has a pension partner, a waiver in Form 13 signed by the pension partner has been provided to the life income fund issuer.

Financial hardship

14 The life income fund issuer will, on application made in accordance with section 140(3) of the Regulation, provide to the owner of the life income fund a lump sum amount, up to the amount prescribed under section 140(5) of the Regulation, if, at the time of the application, the owner meets the requirements of the financial hardship exception set out in section 140(4) of the Regulation.

- This waiver form must be signed by a pension partner in order to permit a member owner of a Locked-In Retirement Account (LIRA) to establish a Life Income Fund (LIF), if that member owner has a pension partner on the establishment date of the LIF.
 - This waiver form is not valid unless it is signed and filed with the LIRA issuer not more than 90 days before the establishment date the LIF.
- 1 Section 131(2) of the Employment Pension Plans Regulation permits a member owner of a LIRA to start to receive retirement income by establishing a LIF with a LIF issuer. That same section requires that if the member owner has a pension partner at the establishment date of a LIF, the pension partner must sign and file this waiver form with the LIRA issuer not more than 90 days before that establishment date.
 - 2 Section 131(3) of the Employment Pension Plans Regulation further requires that if a life annuity is later purchased from the LIF, the form of the life annuity must be a 60% Joint and Survivor annuity with the pension partner named as the joint annuitant, unless the pension partner, at the time of purchase of the annuity signs Form 11 - Pension Partner Waiver of Entitlement to a 60% Joint and Survivor Annuity from a Locked-In Account.
 - 3 A minimum 60% joint and survivor form of annuity is an annuity that is payable during the lives of the annuitant and his or her pension partner and, after the death of one of them, is payable to the survivor for life in an amount that is not less than 60% of the amount that would have been payable to the annuitant had the death not occurred.
 - 4 A LIF does not provide a guaranteed amount of pension payable for the lifetime of the member owner. The pension partner is entitled to the payment of the balance, if any, in the LIF should the member owner die before the pension partner. The pension partner can waive the entitlement to the payment of this death benefit by signing Form 16 - Pension Partner Waiver of Entitlement to a Death Benefit After Establishment of a Life Income Fund.
 - 5 Signing this waiver form does not give up the entitlement to the 60% Joint and Survivor annuity. It may, however, result in a smaller pension if a life annuity is purchased at a later date.
 - 6 A "member owner" is a former pension plan member who has transferred his or her benefit entitlement from a pension plan to a LIRA.
 - 7 Being the "pension partner" means that
 - (a) I am married to the member owner and have not been living separate and apart from that person for a continuous period longer than 3 years, or
 - (b) if paragraph (a) above does not apply to me and there is no other person to whom paragraph (a) does apply, I have been living with the member owner in a marriage-like relationship, for a continuous period of at least 3 years or in a relationship of some permanence, if there is a child of our relationship by birth or adoption immediately preceding the date on which I have signed this waiver form.

- 9 I understand that I do not have to sign this waiver form unless I agree to the establishment of a LIF rather than the commencement of payment under a 60% joint and survivor annuity. Nonetheless, I am signing this waiver form to permit the member owner to establish a LIF.
- 10 I understand that in agreeing to the above, this may reduce the amount of pension that can be purchased under a life annuity at a later date, if a decision to do so is made.

- 11 I understand that signing this waiver form does not affect any rights that I could have as a result of any breakdown or potential breakdown in the relationship between the member owner and myself.
- 12 I understand that this waiver form has no effect unless it is signed and filed with the LIRA issuer not more than 90 days before the establishment date of the LIF.
- 13 I have chosen to sign this waiver form and, in so doing, consent to the transfer of pension funds to a LIF.
